Newsletter – Friday 2nd December

Dear Parents,

Our Y1 and 2 children enjoyed their history workshop last week and tried out some household chores.

Junior children voted Ellie and Callum to be their sports ambassadors. The Y6s have plans to purchase new equipment for lunchtimes and to help organise our school's entry in the dance and tag rugby festivals next term.

Kind regards,

S Bridgman

Mrs Bridgman

Please can children in Y3-6 wear:

- black or grey trousers with a white shirt

Parent Governor

The governors are pleased to announce that Mr Sims (dad to George and Leo) will join the Governing Body to replace Mr Lee as one of our parent representatives.

January 5th and 6th

Just a reminder that the school where our lunches are cooked is closed for INSET on these two days. You will need to provide a packed lunch for your child.

We will cook jacket potatoes on the two days to make a hot option available. Please complete and return the slip below with payment (£2 per day) if you would like your child to have a jacket potato on the two days in January.
